The sparkling turquoise waters and emerald coasts of the French and Italian Rivieras have long enticed the Greeks, Etruscans, Phoenicians, Romans and Germanic peoples. The beau monde began flocking to these seaside towns as de rigueur of the 19th-century “Grand Tour” to rejuvenate in the salubrious climate. The rise of Italian nobility — particularly the Savoys, Italy’s ruling family from 1861 to 1946, and the Grimaldis, the lineage of the current Prince of Monaco — further influenced the development of these coastal gems nestled between the Alps and the sea. The Côte d’Azur’s radiant quality of light captivated Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse and Marc Chagall, distinctly influencing each artist’s use of brilliant colors, while the glamour of the region attracted great writers like F. Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway.

Barcelona, Spain
The lively and beautiful neighborhoods of Barcelona are filled with Europe’s greatest concentration of Gothic architecture and the artistic treasures of Salvador Dalí, Antoni Gaudí and Pablo Picasso.

Carcassonne, France
Settled on the former frontier between France and Spain along ancient trade routes linking the Atlantic with the Mediterranean and Iberian Peninsula and occupied since the sixth century B.C., Carcassonne was fortified by the Romans, conquered by the Visigoths in the fifth century, captured by Persians in the seventh century, and invaded by Franks and overranking hordes of Barbarians. Each of these civilizations left their indelible influence on the extraordinary architectural and artistic heritage of this city over the centuries; the medieval core of Carcassonne today is a UNESCO World Heritage site. Walk the cobblestone streets, admire the drawbridges and watchtowers and enjoy the joyous ringing of bells that evoke its Gothic and medieval past. Travel to the nearby Corbières Mountains to tour the well-preserved, 12th-century Cistercian Abbey of Fontfroide.

Marseilles
Nearly three millennia of maritime heritage thrive in Marseilles, the 2013 European Capital of Culture and a natural port where ships have docked since Greek settlers first arrived in 600 B.C. Enjoy a panoramic tour featuring the historical heart of the city, its Old Town, the majestic 19th-century Cathédrale de la Major, the fantastic Notre Dame de la Garde with its neo-Byzantine interior and extraordinary city views from the grounds, and the Vieux Port (Old Port) which some consider to be the birthplace of Marseilles. Drive on the picturesque Corniche Kennedy, a spectacular boulevard dedicated to the late United States president and travel along the famous and historic high street, Canèbiere, running from the Vieux Port to the Réformés quarter, built by Louis XIV in 1666.

Aix-en-Provence
Immerse yourself in the beautiful medieval city of Aix-en-Provence, located in the heart of France’s sun-drenched Provencal region and which perhaps captures best the quintessential élan of all that is Provence. Visit the Cathedral of Saint Sauveur, considered a national monument by the French, built in the Romanesque, Gothic and neo-Gothic architectural styles on the site of the first-century Roman Forum of Aix. Stroll through the Mazarin district and Old Aix and enjoy the famous Cours Mirabeau, a classic, grand boulevard lined with plane trees and elegant 17th- and 18th-century townhouses.

Nice
One of the oldest human settlements in the world with archaeological sites dating to the Lower Paleolithic period, Nice remains rich in its traditions and centuries-old culture. This capital of the Côte d’Azur is bursting with colors that inspired Marc Chagall and Henri Matisse: the cobalt waters of the Mediterranean, terra cotta roofs, ochre and yellow houses, emerald green gardens, budding flower markets and Baroque marbled tile squares. Enjoy a walking tour of Vieux Nice (old town) and a stroll through its vibrant outdoor flower market.

Monte Carlo, Monaco
The principality of Monaco’s dazzling historic district, Monte Carlo offers an intoxicating mixture of princely sights and intrigue and is famous for its Grand Casino. Admire the legendary belle-époque architecture and enjoy a walking tour on the historic Rock of Monaco. See the Prince’s Palace, home of Europe’s longest-reigning dynasty, and the neo-Romanesque St. Nicholas Cathedral, where Princess Grace is interred.

Cinque Terre, Italy
From Porto Venere’s small harbor, board a private boat cruise and dock in two villages of the famous Cinque Terre. This UNESCO World Heritage site is a series of five charming, colorful fishing villages that cling to remote cliffs overlooking the Ligurian Sea. Discover the spectacular nuances of Riomaggiore and Vernazza, linked by walking paths that offer marvelous views of the charming coves, hidden beaches and terraced vineyards that produce the famous dessert wine Sciacchetrà.

Portofino
Portofino is the perfect village for a leisurely afternoon on the Italian Riviera. You may choose to visit the 17th-century San Giorgio Church, home to the relics of this legendary dragon-slaying saint, stroll the pedestrian-only lanes or sip a cappuccino on the terrace of an outdoor café.

Florence
Enjoy the rolling Tuscan landscape of vineyards and cypress trees en route to Florence, birthplace of the Renaissance.
This iconic UNESCO World Heritage site is a treasure trove of unparalleled achievements in art, architecture and literature. Admire Michelangelo’s David, considered one of his greatest masterpieces; Brunelleschi’s soaring dome at the Duomo of Florence; and Ghiberti’s moving “Doors of Paradise” at the Baptistery of San Giovanni, depicting scenes from the Old Testament in cast bronze.

Pisa/Lucca
The beautifully preserved medieval cities of Pisa and Lucca are a short, scenic drive from the port city of Livorno. Pisa’s famous Piazza dei Miracoli, a UNESCO World Heritage site, showcases the legendary Leaning Tower, the impressive 11th-century duomo and the largest baptistry in Italy. Lucca’s intact Renaissance city walls are now a promenade for pedestrians, and its elaborate 11th-century Cattedrale di San Martino is still an important symbol of the city.

Costa Smeralda, Sardinia
Sardinia’s Costa Smeralda (Emerald Coast) features remote seaside villages, elegant villas, a rugged landscape rising from exquisite white sand beaches, and azure waters plied by sleek luxury yachts. Anchor at Golfo Aranci near Porto Cervo, a haven for celebrities.

Bonifacio, Corsica, France
Dock below the ancient town of Bonifacio, overlooking the sparkling harbor from sheer white limestone cliffs at the southern tip of the island of Corsica. Often referenced by historians as a site portrayed in Homer’s Odyssey, this beautiful port’s fundamentally French character bears a strong Italian imprint, manifested in the islanders’ French-Italian dialect.

Transfer by small train for the walk through the incredibly picturesque medieval citadel and Old Town. Stroll the Rue des Deux-Empereurs, where Charles V and Napoleon once lodged, and see the Gothic Church of St-Dominique and the famous Grain de Sable limestone formation.

Rome, Italy
Once the center of a vast empire, today this UNESCO World Heritage site is the historic heart of Italy. From the iconic Colosseum and the Vatican to the Spanish Steps and the Catacombs, the remains of ancient Rome continue to astonish visitors.
