Personal Bio:

Phil is married to Anita K. Lane, MD (Northwestern 1987, residency at Northwestern Memorial 1994). They have three daughters and reside in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Career Information:

Phil started his career as an account sales manager with Pepsi-Cola General Bottlers in Chicago. He worked for GB for 6 years, in the interim earning a Masters in Management from Kellogg. He and Anita then moved to Colorado Springs as she began her Internal Medicine practice and Phil joined his family business, Lane Affiliated Companies. Along with his Father and Brother, Phil was responsible for General Management of the Pepsi-Cola franchise, which included operations in 6 western states. The Lanes sold their business to Pepsi Bottling Group in 2008.

Phil is currently the Managing Partner of Culebra Properties, a real estate concern in Colorado Springs. He is also involved with several start-up companies in the Pikes Peak Region.

Civic Engagement:

Phil is the current Board President for the Colorado Golf Association and has been the Chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee since 2010. He has been on the Board of Trustees of the Colorado Field Office of The Nature Conservancy since 2009. Other board commitments include the YMCA of the Pikes Peak Region and the United States Olympic Museum.

Northwestern Connections:

Mr. Lane is a very enthusiastic Wildcat. He is a supporter of the NU athletic department and a football season ticket holder.

Family/Hobbies:

Phil married Anita Kraus in 1991. They have three daughters, Casey, a sophomore at Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri, Sydney, a senior at Fountain Valley School in Colorado Springs, and Marni, a 7th grader at Cheyenne Mountain Junior High.

His hobbies include Reading, Golf, Squash, and Skiing.
