The NAA Travel Program organizes trips that traverse the globe and vary in itinerary, cost and structure. Here are the most common trip structures.

Alumni Campus Abroad (AHI Travel) and Village Life Programs (Gohagan)
These all-or-mostly-inclusive itineraries are typically one week to ten days long, highly educational, and moderately priced. One convenience is the “unpack only once” aspect of the tour. If the tour is a land program, comfortable accommodations are located in a smaller town and the group is transported by motor coach to different destinations each day.

Deluxe Programs and Cruises
These itineraries are usually ten days to two weeks and they offer free time, lectures and guided tours. Most accommodations are four or five star hotels or cruise ships and travelers visit several different cities or towns. The price of the deluxe tours reflects the level of accommodations and the length of the tour. If the program is a cruise, your luggage travels on board the ship with you and typically docks at each city you will be exploring.

High Quality/Small Group Travel (Odysseys Unlimited)
These small group tours, consisting of only 12 to 24 guests, provide an intimate, authentic travel experience with a high level of personal service. Small group tours allow guests to move about easily and spontaneously, staying in unique accommodations, and experiencing one-on-one cultural encounters. Top-notch tour directors that are among the most experienced in the industry are a highlight of these small group tours.

Sports-Themed Tours
The NAA offers sports-themed travel as well as football tours. Football tours are typically a long weekend package that highlights an away football game at an interesting destination. Each package is customized for NU fans and includes hotel accommodations, a welcome reception, and a tailgate and football ticket.

ATHLETIC TOURS

Bowl games

If the Wildcat football team becomes Bowl-eligible, the NAA partners with Athletics to develop a Bowl tour and/or game day package that includes tickets to the Bowl game and an exclusive NAA tailgate prior to the game. Depending upon the Bowl destination, other tour components may include air, hotel, welcome reception and other alumni association activities that highlight Northwestern University. Visit the NAA website in early December 2014 for more information.

Itineraries, availability, dates and pricing are subject to change and details are still being worked out for many of the 2016 itineraries highlighted in this document. Please visit www.alumni.northwestern.edu/travel for the most current information, or call 847-491-7987.

Whether or not you travel the world with the NAA, you can make an impact on the world by giving to Northwestern. All gifts, or any size, count toward We Will. The Campaign for Northwestern. Your gift will help the University continue to engage both locally and globally by cultivating a diverse international community of students and faculty, participating in global research and partnerships, and providing study abroad opportunities that broaden students’ perspectives. Make your gift today at wewill.northwestern.edu.
UNIVERSITY TRAVEL DISCLAIMER

The University is not the Tour Operator. The University acts as a mere agent for the supplier by: selling travel-related accepting services, accepting reservations, and booking for services that are not directly supplied by the University.

The University is not responsible for changes of flight times, fare changes, damage, loss of baggage, dishonor of airline, hotel or other reservations, delays, losses, injuries, inconveniences, cessation of operations, airline or tour operator bankruptcies, accidents, or for the acts of defaults of any person or entity engaged in conveying participants or in carrying out other arrangements of the tour. The University reserves the right to substitute hotels of similar quality. The Tour Operator further reserves the right to decline to accept or to retain any person as a member of the tour should such person’s health, actions or general deportment impede the operation of the tour or the right or welfare of the other participants. No refund will be made for the unused portion of any tour.

The University, therefore, shall not be responsible for breach of contract, failure to comply with any state or federal laws, including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), or any intentional or negligent actions or omissions on the part of such suppliers, which result in any loss, damage, delay, inconvenience or injury to travelers or travelers’ companions or group members.

The University shall not be responsible for any injuries, damages or other losses caused to any traveler in connection with terrorist activities, social or labor unrest, mechanical or construction failures or difficulties, diseases, local laws, climatic conditions, abnormal conditions or developments, or any other action, omissions, or conditions outside the University’s control. Traveler assumes complete and full responsibility for, and hereby releases the agent from, any duty of checking and verifying any and all passport, visa, vaccination, or other entry requirements of each destination, and all safety and security conditions of such destinations, during the length of the proposed travel. However, we specifically recommend that US Citizens traveling to Canada, Mexico, or the Caribbean, do so with a valid US Passport.

For information concerning possible dangers at international destinations, contact the US State Department, 202-647-5225, or access the State Department’s online travel advisory service. For medical information, call the U.S. Centers for Disease Control (CDC) at 800-232-4636 or visit the CDC website.

By embarking upon his/her travel, the traveler voluntarily assumes all risk involved in such travel—whether expected or unexpected. Traveler is hereby warned of the above risks as well as possible travel industry bankruptcies and medical and climatic disruptions, and the possibility traveler may be unable to travel as scheduled because of personal emergency. Traveler is advised to obtain appropriate insurance coverage against these risks; information is available through the University regarding travel insurance. Traveler’s retention of tickets, reservations, or booking after issuance shall constitute a consent to the above and an agreement on his/her part to convey the contents hereto to his/her travel companions or group members. The Northwestern Alumni Association receives financial benefits from the administrator that provides this program. These benefits fund the travel program.
