Jewish Heritage
by River Ship

14 DAYS FROM BUDAPEST TO PRAGUE
Dear Northwestern University alumni and friends,

Please join us on a 14-day journey up the Danube, stopping at charming towns and cities to discover picturesque architecture, magical cityscapes, and centuries of history that have formed the area. Spend two nights in Budapest before embarking for Vienna. Sail westward with guided sightseeing in Dürnberg, Melk, Passau, Regensburg, and Nuremberg. Then disembark in Prague where you’ll spend your final three nights; among the inclusions are a guided city tour and a special excursion to Terezin and its former concentration camps.

This sailing provides opportunities to see a variety of Jewish Heritage sites including synagogues, museums, and monuments that document the contributions, history, and struggles of the Jewish people in Europe. Some of these visits are included in the itinerary, and some may be visited during your free time. During this departure, you will have the remarkable opportunity to hear lectures from Dr. Inge Auerbacher, a concentration camp survivor. Her stories and insights will provide a deeply personal perspective to this truly unique journey.

Your vessel for this program is the 166-guest Avalon Expression—built in 2013—featuring deluxe accommodations, a dedicated staff, and an exceptional variety of amenities. There is no better river ship aboard which to travel and explore the area. A dedicated Orbridge Travel Director and knowledgeable local guides will ensure you see and learn about this area’s historical past.

Stateroom availability is limited. With significant savings of more than $800 per couple, we anticipate this program will fill quickly, so be certain to reserve your spot today and share this brochure with family and friends who may be interested in traveling with you. Reserve online at http://northwestern.orbridge.com, by calling (800) 682-5867 or (847) 491-7987, or by returning the enclosed reservation form.

Kind regards,
