The mission of the Northwestern Alumni Association (NAA) is to establish and enhance a mutually beneficial relationship between Northwestern University and all its alumni.

The Association serves the University by encouraging support for the University, promoting alumni interest and involvement in University affairs, nurturing relationships among alumni, and providing programs and services.

The Association serves alumni by facilitating communications among alumni and between alumni and the University, sponsoring alumni programs and benefits, and offering opportunities for continuing education and public service.

In all its activities, the Alumni Association is committed to learning as a lifelong process and fosters the University’s mission of academic excellence.

SPREADING THE SPIRIT: In January 2013, the Spirit Club Initiative, which builds an alumni presence in previously unrepresented regions, started with the launch of spirit clubs in Sacramento, California, and Madison, Wisconsin. Spirit Clubs in Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Salt Lake City, Louisville, Little Rock, and Memphis launched in March, while Central Illinois; Chattanooga, Tennessee; and Nashville clubs followed in Summer 2013.

INTERNATIONAL STRIDES: The NU Clubs of Korea and Thailand received charters from the NAA Board in September 2012, while in May 2013 more than 40 alumni attended the first event of the NU Club Qatar. In July, President Morton Schapiro visited Korea for a Celebrate Northwestern event that engaged 219 alumni, students, and friends.

FOSTERING LEADERSHIP: The NAA hosted its 2012 Leadership Symposium in Evanston in September, giving club leaders from around the world a chance to meet one another and learn best practices. The event drew more than 140 alumni and guests.

AN AFFINITY TO REUNITE: During Homecoming and Reunion Weekend 2012 in October, five national clubs hosted events, engaging 776 alumni and guests.

WELCOMING NEW WILDCATS: Club members answered questions and introduced potential students and parents to the Northwestern alumni community at nine admitted student parties hosted by local clubs in April 2013.

CELEBRATING MENTORSHIP: The Council of One Hundred (C100), a network of successful alumnae professionals hosted its 20th-anniversary gala in April 2013 in Wilmette, Illinois. More than 120 guests, including President Morton Schapiro and all living past chairs of C100, attended the event.

SUPPORTING NU STUDENTS: The NAA’s Clubs Scholarship Program raised $98,567 from 895 donors in FY13. The Northwestern University Black Alumni Association (NUBAA) was able to endow its NUBAA Promise Scholarship in May.

100% of Leadership Symposium attendees who responded to the post-event survey said they would recommend the event, while 95 percent said they planned to attend in 2013.

STUDENT AND YOUNG ALUMNI OUTREACH

Engaging the newest Wildcats to foster a lifelong connection to Northwestern

WELCOMING ENVIRONMENT: The NAA had a strong presence at Wildcat Welcome in September, as approximately 2,000 members of the Class of 2016 were introduced to the Alumni Association at events such as the March Through the Arch, Deering Days, and a special tailgate before an NU football game.

AWARD-WINNING ENGAGEMENT: Northwestern’s Student Alumni Alliance (SAA), a program created and administered by the NAA, received a 2012 National Outstanding Organization Award from the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE). SAA was selected for the award out of a field of 125 applicants.

GIVING THANKS: Thank a Donor Week in April educated Northwestern students about the importance of philanthropy. Four hundred students from more than 150 student groups wrote a total of 6,650 notes thanking donors for the impact their generosity has made on Northwestern.

SALUTING SENIORS: The NAA distributed 2,000 reusable shopping bags containing Alumni Association informational material to seniors as they picked up caps and gowns in June. Also during Senior Week, more than 900 members of the Class of 2013 attended the Last Lecture at The Cubby Bear in Chicago.

SHARING EXPERIENCE: The “5 Before 25” panel in February 2013 connected students and young alumni. Recent graduates discussed their early career experiences with an audience of 40 students.

HITTING THE SLOPES: The popular Young Alumni Ski and Snowboard Trip brought 270 alumni and friends to Keystone, Colorado, in February 2013.

Ann Lurie received the Grant Goodrich Achievement Award, given to a non-graduate who has enhanced Northwestern through professional accomplishments, commitment, and service.

The Emerging Leader Award, honoring alumni who make a significant impact on their profession and/or community by the age of 35, was given to Howard Warren Buffett (C06).
ATHLETICS ENGAGEMENT

BRINGING ALUMNI ACROSS THE COUNTRY TOGETHER TO SUPPORT WILDCATS ATHLETICS

FISCAL YEAR 2013 HIGHLIGHTS

ROAD TRIPPING: In fall 2012, the NAA hosted tailgates before Wildcats football road games at Syracuse, Penn State, Minnesota, Michigan, and Michigan State. A total of 602 alumni and friends were engaged, including 172 at the Michigan tailgate in November 2012 in Ann Arbor.

GATOR BOWL GLORY: The alumni community was in full force for the NU football team’s landmark victory in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl in January 2013 in Jacksonville, Florida. The NAA’s Gator Bowl tour and package engaged 274 alumni and friends, and 907 attended the NAA’s Gator Bowl tailgate. The NAA also hosted a volunteer breakfast for 51 NAA alumni leaders the day before the game.

PAINTING WRIGLEY PURPLE: The Wildcats baseball team played at historic Wrigley Field in April 2013, and a pregame tailgate at the ballpark’s Captain Morgan Club attracted 170 alumni, parents, and friends.

FLOCKING TO BERKELEY: Alumni and friends from across the country attended the NAA tailgate before the Northwestern-Cal football game in Berkeley in August 2013. Attracted by the opening of the season and a rematch of the 1949 Rose Bowl, the crowd was one of the largest ever seen at an NAA away-game tailgate. The event engaged 1,262 people, while an additional 319 people signed up for a wait list.

Fifteen percent of respondents to a 2012 post-tailgate survey said they felt more connected to the University after attending the official tailgate.

LEADERSHIP GIVING HIGHLIGHTS

LEADERSHIP GIVING: Alumni are a crucial part of the Northwestern University Leadership Circle (NULC) giving society — a group made up of loyal supporters who give $1,000 or more annually. Gifts from these alumni and friends totaled $51 million in support of the University, an increase of 19 percent over FY12.

BUILDING COMMUNITY: The Leadership Circle engaged alumni at receptions, dinners, and other events all across the country. More than 950 Leadership Circle members attended NULC events in the fall, including receptions at the Ritz-Carlton in Chicago, the New York Palace Hotel, and at the United Center with Blackhawks owner Rocky Wirtz (C78).

L.A. STORY: The leadership giving community came to Southern California with the launch of the NULC Los Angeles Regional Board. The group held its first meeting in October 2012, and 270 guests attended its first reception in November. Regional Boards, volunteers who work to strengthen leadership giving in their areas, also continued to grow in Boston, Chicago, Florida, New York, San Francisco, and Washington, DC.

MASS APPEAL: In May 2013, the NULC Boston Regional Board held a Celebrate Northwestern event at the home of New England Patriots president Jonathan Kraft which drew 300 attendees — a record for an NULC event in Boston.

STRENGTH IN NUMBERS
Why every gift matters

WHO MAKES ANNUAL GIFTS TO NORTHWESTERN?
56,337 men and women across all 50 states and throughout the world

Individual Gift Amounts
Annual gifts are made in all different sizes. Of gifts made in 2013, 66% were $100 or less.

Why Do We Need Everyone’s Help?
In order to meet our obligation to students with financial need, Northwestern must raise $43.15 every minute.

Who Keeps Giving?
NU Loyal, a new program honoring Northwestern supporters who give three or more years consecutively, already has 24,000 members.

Undergraduate Alumni Giving*
20,733 donors
27% of all Northwestern undergraduate alumni

WHY DO THESE NUMBERS MATTER TO NORTHWESTERN?
A university’s percentage of undergraduate alumni donors can impact its national ranking:

US News & World Report ranks Northwestern #12 in top national universities
A 36 percent undergraduate giving rate would place Northwestern among the top universities for participation, increasing our chances to move into that esteemed top 10

*As reported in US News & World Report, September 2013 reflects 2012 results

In addition to Northwestern’s schools, popular areas funded by annual donors include:

- African Studies program
- Block Museum
- Center for Civic Engagement
- NAA Club Scholarships
- Dance Marathon
- Latino student programming
- Minority/women in engineering
- Radio, TV, and Film department
- Sailing Club
- Study abroad
- Summer internships
- University Library
- University Scholarships
- Waa-Mu
- Wildcat Fund for Athletics
- WNUR radio station

Annual supporters contribute to 1,532 different areas across Northwestern—offering their direct support of the areas closest to their hearts.

Northwestern undergraduate alumni, University Trustees, NAA Board members, Graduate School alumni, Kellogg alumni, Law School alumni, Reunion celebrants, Grateful patients, Medical School alumni, Faculty and staff, Class of 2013 students, Parents, grandparents, and families, friends and University neighbors, Supporters of Athletics, Theater patrons, Northwestern Women’s Board members, Estates of friends, and YOU!
REUNIONS AND HOMECOMING

Bringing alumni back to campus to relive memories and celebrate Northwestern

FISCAL YEAR 2013 HIGHLIGHTS

RECORD GIVING: A record 31 percent of alumni from classes celebrating Reunion 2012 in October made a gift in honor of their class. The Class of 1962 led the way with an impressive 45 percent participation rate in support of its class gift. In all, alumni celebrants raised a total of $12.6 million to support Northwestern’s students, programs, and initiatives.

CLASSES WITHOUT QUIZZES: Eight faculty members taught four “Classes Without Quizzes” to Reunion registrants. The classes, ranging in topic from art to biomedical research, engaged 332 alumni and friends.

CHEERING ON THE ‘CATS: More than 1,000 alumni and friends attended the Reunion Tailgate prior to the Homecoming football game, and the Reunion block of game tickets sold out for the third consecutive year.

HAPPY HOMECOMING: Homecoming festivities — led by grand marshal J. A. Adande (J92), an ESPN.com journalist and television personality — drew 2,286 alumni, parents, and friends.

IMPORTANT MILESTONE: In June 2013, 33 alumni from the Class of 1963 returned to the Evanston campus to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their graduation by walking in the University’s Commencement procession.
